Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/17

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 1: Identify Yourself

8. How you will pay the fee
- ☒ I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
- ☐ I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
- ☐ I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 3: Report About Any Businesses You Own as a Sole Proprietor

12. Are you a sole proprietor of any full- or part-time business?

☒ No. Go to Part 4.

☐ Yes. Name and location of business

A sole proprietorship is a business you operate as an individual, and is not a separate legal entity such as a corporation, partnership, or LLC.

If you have more than one sole proprietorship, use a separate sheet and attach it to this petition.

Name of business, if any

Number, Street, City, State & ZIP Code

Check the appropriate box to describe your business:

- ☐ Health Care Business (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27A))
- ☐ Single Asset Real Estate (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(51B))
- ☐ Stockbroker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(53A))
- ☐ Commodity Broker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(6))
- ☐ None of the above

13. Are you filing under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and are you a small business debtor?

For a definition of small business debtor, see 11 U.S.C. § 101(51D).

If you are filing under Chapter 11, the court must know whether you are a small business debtor so that it can set appropriate deadlines. If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. 1116(1)(B).

☒ No. I am not filing under Chapter 11.

☐ No. I am filing under Chapter 11, but I am NOT a small business debtor according to the definition in the Bankruptcy Code.

☐ Yes. I am filing under Chapter 11 and I am a small business debtor according to the definition in the Bankruptcy Code.

Part 4: Report if You Own or Have Any Hazardous Property or Any Property That Needs Immediate Attention

14. Do you own or have any property that poses or is alleged to pose a threat of imminent and identifiable hazard to public health or safety? Or do you own any property that needs immediate attention?

☒ No.

☐ Yes. What is the hazard?

If immediate attention is needed, why is it needed?

For example, do you own perishable goods, or livestock that must be fed, or a building that needs urgent repairs?

Where is the property?

Number, Street, City, State & Zip Code

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Part 7: Sign BelowFor you

I have examined this petition, and I declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct.

If I have chosen to file under Chapter 7, I am aware that I may proceed, if eligible, under Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 of title 11, United States Code. I understand the relief available under each chapter, and I choose to proceed under Chapter 7.

If no attorney represents me and I did not pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help me fill out this document, I have obtained and read the notice required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b).

I request relief in accordance with the chapter of title 11, United States Code, specified in this petition.

I understand making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Official Form 106CSchedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt*4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☒ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Schedule E/F: Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims

Be as complete and accurate as possible. Use Part 1 for creditors with PRIORITY claims and Part 2 for creditors with NONPRIORITY claims. List the other party to any executory contracts or unexpired leases that could result in a claim. Also list executory contracts on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) and on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G). Do not include any creditors with partially secured claims that are listed in Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. If more space is needed, copy the Part you need, fill it out, number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Continuation Page to this page. If you have no information to report in a Part, do not file that Part. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

1. Do any creditors have priority unsecured claims against you?

- ☒ No. Go to Part 2.
☐ Yes.

Part 2: List All of Your NONPRIORITY Unsecured Claims

3. Do any creditors have nonpriority unsecured claims against you?

- ☐ No. You have nothing to report in this part. Submit this form to the court with your other schedules.
☒ Yes.

4. List all of your nonpriority unsecured claims in the alphabetical order of the creditor who holds each claim. If a creditor has more than one nonpriority unsecured claim, list the creditor separately for each claim. For each claim listed, identify what type of claim it is. Do not list claims already included in Part 1. If more than one creditor holds a particular claim, list the other creditors in Part 3. If you have more than three nonpriority unsecured claims fill out the Continuation Page of Part 2.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

	$245	filing fee
	$75	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Dear Renee

We appreciate the opportunity to help you resolve your financial situation. After reviewing your finances, I agree with you that filing for bankruptcy under Chapter 7 is the best solution.

This letter will serve as an engagement agreement that will establish the terms of our relationship. When you sign it, it will become a contract between us.

In passing the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005, the Congress imposed strict requirements upon attorneys representing debtors, requiring them to specify what duties they will perform and to make certain representations to clients. Those specific duties and representations are set out in the representation agreement.

Please read this agreement carefully and be sure you understand it. If you have any questions, you should consult with me before signing. Once you are satisfied with the agreement, please sign and return a copy to me.

Following are the specifics of our proposed representation, we will:

1. Meet with you to discuss your financial situation and possible solutions;
2. Provide the section 342(b)(1) notice, which sets out the purpose, benefits, and costs of filing under Chapters 7, 11, 12 or 13; the types of services available from credit counseling agencies; and the penalties of committing certain bankruptcy crimes, and will explain the notice to you;
3. Prepare the necessary bankruptcy petition, schedules, statement of affairs, and other documents, and review and file the bankruptcy case under the chapter you select;
4. Prepare for and accompany you to the section 341 first meeting of creditors;
5. Assist in the amendments to the papers filed and the production of such documents as the trustee requests;
6. Assist you in the execution of reaffirmation agreements that are in your best interest.

For this work, we will charge you the following:

A fee of $399 to file a chapter 7 bankruptcy petition for you, which may not be a complete filing.. If you elect this option, we will ask you to sign a separate agreement after your petition is filed which will require payments of $1,990 in order for us to perform all additional work which will enable you to obtain a discharge or your debts. You understand, however, that if you do not retain us to perform the additional work, we will not be obligated to do any other work for you and we may withdraw from your case and/or your case may be dismissed.

As a separate document, but included as part of this representation agreement, we are giving you notice of "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services from an Attorney" as required by section 527 of the Bankruptcy Reform Act. See Exhibit A. and How to Provide All Information Required by Section 521.

You agree to furnish all information necessary to enable us to complete the papers that will be filed in your case and that such information will be complete, accurate, and truthful.

This document represents the complete agreement between the parties and may not be modified or replaced except by a subsequent written agreement executed by the parties. You also acknowledge that you were provided Exhibit B that is also fully incorporated herein.

This representation agreement shall be void if not executed by the parties within five (5) business days after the first date on which the agency provides any bankruptcy assistance services.

You acknowledge that we can not 100% guarantee you that you will receive a discharge in a Chapter 7. Your petition will be reviewed by the trustee, bankruptcy court, US Trustee and potential creditors. They have the right to object to the petition. However, we strive to ensure that all petitions are prepared and reviewed so that any potential issues are resolved prior to filing to give you the best possible chance of a discharge. You also understand that most taxes, student loans and other governmental obligations will not be discharged in your bankruptcy.

The client understands that all funds that client is paying to Cutler & Associates, are to be considered an advance payment which is part of this payment retainer agreement and shall immediately become the property of Cutler & Associates, Ltd. This advance payment is made in exchange for a promise by Cutler & Associates, Ltd., to provide said legal services listed in this retainer agreement. Said advance payment funds will be deposited into the general business account owned by Cutler & Associates, Ltd., and will be used for any and all general expenses of Cutler & Associates, Ltd. The undersigned also understands that it is the client's choice to have said retainer deposited in Cutler & Associates, Ltd.'s IOLTA attorney bank account and shall remain the undersigned's property as security for any future services. However, if the undersigned chooses this option, he or she understands that Cutler & Associates, Ltd. does not represent the undersigned due to the fact that the legal work and creation of a bankruptcy case requires various tasks and expenses for the attorneys and employees of Cutler & Associates, Ltd., some of which requires legal advice, secretarial work and expenses required for the creation and processing of said Bankruptcy case and services. Finally, the undersigned understands that the benefit that the undersigned is gaining for payment of said advanced retainer payment is a promise of Cutler & Associates, Ltd. to perform any and all work reasonably necessary to represent client's Bankruptcy interests, notwithstanding any extraordinary circumstances regarding the undersigned's Bankruptcy case.

Sincerely and agreed:

Cutler & Associates, Ltd.

EXHIBIT A
Debt Relief Agency Disclosures to an Assisted Person

Section 527 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a Debt Relief Agency to provide an assisted person with the following:

A copy of the notice prepared by the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, in accordance with the requirements of §342(b), which is attached hereto and which contains:

- (1) a brief description of:
 - (A) Chapters 7, 13, 12, and 13 and the general purpose, benefits, and costs of proceeding under each of those chapters; and
 - (B) the types of services available from credit counseling agencies; and
 - (2) statements specifying that:
 - (A) a person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury in connection with a case under this title shall be subject to fine, imprisonment, or both; and
 - (B) all information supplied by a debtor in connection with a case under this title is subject to examination by the Attorney General.
2. The following disclosures are required by §527(a)(2), which advises an assisted person that:
- (A) all information that the assisted person is required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under this title is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful.
 - (B) all assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in § 506 must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value;
 - (C) current monthly income, the amounts specified in section 707(b)(2), and, in a case under Chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with § 707(b)(2)) are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry; and
 - (D) information that an assisted person provides during his or her case may be audited pursuant to this title, and failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including a criminal sanction.

If you have any questions about any of these disclosures, we will be happy to provide further explanation. We also call your attention to Exhibits A and B attached to the Representation and made a part thereof.

Separate Disclosure Required by Section 527 of the Bankruptcy Code as Amended

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY

(Note: This form is mandated by statute. It may or may not correctly explain the law.)

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself; you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. The law requires an attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer to give you a written contract specifying what the attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer will do for you and how much it will cost. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information explains what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much services you need. Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and decide which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents (Petition, Schedules, Statement of Financial Affairs, and in some cases a Statement of Intention) must be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you must attend the required first meeting of creditors, where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case, in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan, which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you should consult someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only lawyers, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

EXHIBIT B

Information to the Assisted Person (Debtor) on
How to Provide All Information Required by Section 521

Section 521 of the Code sets out the Debtor's duties related to the filing of a bankruptcy case. A copy of the section is attached to this writing.

As you fill out these schedules and statement of affairs, you should keep the following in mind.

Completing the income and expense pages accurately and completely is critical.

- (a) To compile your income, refer to recent pay stubs and last year's income tax returns. Accounting for overtime, investment dividends, and other earnings is necessary.
- (b) People usually pay cash for many items, such as groceries. Review your monthly expense payments and make a best estimate on cash expenditures. If you pay insurance annually, calculate the monthly cost. Attached are IRS expense allowances for the area in which you live. If your expenses exceed these, we will have to review them and perhaps make adjustments.
- (c) When you value property you own, consider prices in the neighborhood for housing, in newspapers and car lots for automobiles, and what you would pay for furniture and clothes at a business selling such goods.
- (d) If you have an item of special value, an appraisal may be necessary.
- (e) When listing creditors, collect current bills and use that information for mailing addresses and balances due.
- (f) Under the law of this state, or federal bankruptcy law, certain property may be exempt and may be retained. Attached is a copy of the state list of exemptions and also a list of property that may be exempt under federal law. Neither list is all-inclusive. If a seller has a lien on exempt property, the lien may be avoidable or you may have to pay for the property in order to keep it. After you have prepared these lists, we can review them and decide what property qualifies as exempt.

EXHIBIT C

IMPORTANT NOTES PLEASE READ EACH CAREFULLY.
By initialing you acknowledge that you read and understood each of the following

Initials	Important Information
	Within 14 days of filing your case you are required to complete and file a certificate showing that you have completed a debtor education class. If you do not, you will not receive a discharge. It is your responsibility to complete the class and we will not remind you.
	We can add creditors to your petition within a reasonable time after filing. However, there is a fee of $100 which includes a $30 court cost that must be paid prior to us amending your petition. You are fully responsible for providing all creditors to us and if you wish for us to amend your petition prior to discharge you must provide us a list of the missing creditors and the $100 along with any other documents we require, no later than 30 days prior to discharge. We will not remind you of the deadline.
	If at any time you need a copy of your notice of filing or discharge letter there will be a charge of $100 that must be paid prior to the paper work being given to you.
	If you fail to attend your first 341 meeting for any reason and it is continued. You will pay our firm an additional $300 to attend the continued 341 meeting.
	Any other potential services, such as defense of a complaint to determine dischargeability of a debt or of a United States Trustee motion to convert this case or dismiss it as an abusive filing, are not included and will be provided only through a separate representation agreement.
	If you have property secured by a loan (i.e. vehicle or real estate) and you wish to continue with the pre-filing payments, it is important for you to call your lender, after filing bankruptcy and ask them to send us a "reaffirmation agreement". The reaffirmation agreement is your agreement to keep paying for the property after your bankruptcy case is over. If you execute a reaffirmation agreement and it is filed with the court you will then be fully obligated to repay the loan. It is your responsibility to ensure that you read the reaffirmation carefully and understand its terms. In addition, you must make sure the bank files it with the bankruptcy court. We will only complete necessary portions of the reaffirmation agreement, it is your responsibility to make sure it is executed and filed by the bank. This is not a recommendation to reaffirm mortgage loans.
	It is very important for you to inform us of any credit card purchases within the last six months for non-essential items and cash advances. I consider food, gas, medical and other such purchases to be essential. Any non-essential purchases in excess of $500 should be specifically discussed with me so that I can best serve your interests.
	You must notify me of any payments made to a friend or family member within 1yr of filing the bankruptcy petition that were made to repay a debt owed to them.
	It is your responsibility to make sure we have a full list of your creditors and their correct bankruptcy mailing address.
	You have told us of all real estate you owned in the last 5 years. Regardless of its current ownership or title status and your petition discloses any judgements you may have against you.
	You must file your case within 90 days of executing this agreement or we reserve the right to close your case. See below for refund policy.
	If you pay the $399 in full and then decide to not proceed, we are entitled to keep no less than $399 for work completed on your bankruptcy petition prior to your decision to not proceed. We reserve the right to make the final determination on how much money to refund to you. If you pay a down payment we will not return your money as it will be credited against the meeting time you spent with our attorney.

Dear Renee

We appreciate the opportunity to help you resolve your financial situation. After reviewing your finances, I agree with you that filing for bankruptcy under Chapter 7 is the best solution.

This letter will serve as an engagement agreement that will establish the terms of our relationship. When you sign it, it will become a contract between us.

In passing the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005, the Congress imposed strict requirements upon attorneys representing debtors, requiring them to specify what duties they will perform and to make certain representations to clients. Those specific duties and representations are set out in the representation agreement.

Please read this agreement carefully and be sure you understand it. If you have any questions, you should consult with me before signing. Once you are satisfied with the agreement, please sign and return a copy to me.

Following are the specifics of our proposed representation, we will:

1. Meet with you to discuss your financial situation and possible solutions;
2. Provide the section 342(b)(1) notice, which sets out the purpose, benefits, and costs of filing under Chapters 7, 11, 12 or 13; the types of services available from credit counseling agencies; and the penalties of committing certain bankruptcy crimes, and will explain the notice to you;
3. Prepare the necessary bankruptcy petition, schedules, statement of affairs, and other documents, and review and file the bankruptcy case under the chapter you select;
4. Prepare for and accompany you to the section 341 first meeting of creditors;
5. Assist in the amendments to the papers filed and the production of such documents as the trustee requests;
6. Assist you in the execution of reaffirmation agreements that are in your best interest.

For this work, we will charge you the following:

A fee of $399 to file a chapter 7 bankruptcy petition for you, which may not be a complete filing.. If you elect this option, we will ask you to sign a separate agreement after your petition is filed which will require payments of $1,990 in order for us to perform all additional work which will enable you to obtain a discharge or your debts. You understand, however, that if you do not retain us to perform the additional work, we will not be obligated to do any other work for you and we may withdraw from your case and/or your case may be dismissed.

As a separate document, but included as part of this representation agreement, we are giving you notice of "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services from an Attorney" as required by section 527 of the Bankruptcy Reform Act. See Exhibit A. and How to Provide All Information Required by Section 521.

You agree to furnish all information necessary to enable us to complete the papers that will be filed in your case and that such information will be complete, accurate, and truthful.

This document represents the complete agreement between the parties and may not be modified or replaced except by a subsequent written agreement executed by the parties. You also acknowledge that you were provided Exhibit B that is also fully incorporated herein.

This representation agreement shall be void if not executed by the parties within five (5) business days after the first date on which the agency provides any bankruptcy assistance services.

You acknowledge that we can not 100% guarantee you that you will receive a discharge in a Chapter 7. Your petition will be reviewed by the trustee, bankruptcy court, US Trustee and potential creditors. They have the right to object to the petition. However, we strive to ensure that all petitions are prepared and reviewed so that any potential issues are resolved prior to filing to give you the best possible chance of a discharge. You also understand that most taxes, student loans and other governmental obligations will not be discharged in your bankruptcy.

The client understands that all funds that client is paying to Cutler & Associates, are to be considered an advance payment which is part of this payment retainer agreement and shall immediately become the property of Cutler & Associates, Ltd. This advance payment is made in exchange for a promise by Cutler & Associates, Ltd., to provide said legal services listed in this retainer agreement. Said advance payment funds will be deposited into the general business account owned by Cutler & Associates, Ltd., and will be used for any and all general expenses of Cutler & Associates, Ltd. The undersigned also understands that it is the client's choice to have said retainer deposited in Cutler & Associates, Ltd.'s IOLTA attorney bank account and shall remain the undersigned's property as security for any future services. However, if the undersigned chooses this option, he or she understands that Cutler & Associates, Ltd. does not represent the undersigned due to the fact that the legal work and creation of a bankruptcy case requires various tasks and expenses for the attorneys and employees of Cutler & Associates, Ltd., some of which requires legal advice, secretarial work and expenses required for the creation and processing of said Bankruptcy case and services. Finally, the undersigned understands that the benefit that the undersigned is gaining for payment of said advanced retainer payment is a promise of Cutler & Associates, Ltd. to perform any and all work reasonably necessary to represent client's Bankruptcy interests, notwithstanding any extraordinary circumstances regarding the undersigned's Bankruptcy case.

Sincerely and agreed:

Cutler & Associates, Ltd.

EXHIBIT A
Debt Relief Agency Disclosures to an Assisted Person

Section 527 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a Debt Relief Agency to provide an assisted person with the following:

A copy of the notice prepared by the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, in accordance with the requirements of §342(b), which is attached hereto and which contains:

- (1) a brief description of:
 - (A) Chapters 7, 13, 12, and 13 and the general purpose, benefits, and costs of proceeding under each of those chapters; and
 - (B) the types of services available from credit counseling agencies; and
 - (2) statements specifying that:
 - (A) a person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury in connection with a case under this title shall be subject to fine, imprisonment, or both; and
 - (B) all information supplied by a debtor in connection with a case under this title is subject to examination by the Attorney General.
2. The following disclosures are required by §527(a)(2), which advises an assisted person that:
- (A) all information that the assisted person is required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under this title is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful.
 - (B) all assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in § 506 must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value;
 - (C) current monthly income, the amounts specified in section 707(b)(2), and, in a case under Chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with § 707(b)(2)) are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry; and
 - (D) information that an assisted person provides during his or her case may be audited pursuant to this title, and failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including a criminal sanction.

If you have any questions about any of these disclosures, we will be happy to provide further explanation. We also call your attention to Exhibits A and B attached to the Representation and made a part thereof.

Separate Disclosure Required by Section 527 of the Bankruptcy Code as Amended

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY

(Note: This form is mandated by statute. It may or may not correctly explain the law.)

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself; you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. The law requires an attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer to give you a written contract specifying what the attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer will do for you and how much it will cost. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information explains what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much services you need. Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and decide which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents (Petition, Schedules, Statement of Financial Affairs, and in some cases a Statement of Intention) must be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you must attend the required first meeting of creditors, where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case, in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan, which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you should consult someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only lawyers, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

EXHIBIT B

Information to the Assisted Person (Debtor) on
How to Provide All Information Required by Section 521

Section 521 of the Code sets out the Debtor's duties related to the filing of a bankruptcy case. A copy of the section is attached to this writing.

As you fill out these schedules and statement of affairs, you should keep the following in mind.

Completing the income and expense pages accurately and completely is critical.

- (a) To compile your income, refer to recent pay stubs and last year's income tax returns. Accounting for overtime, investment dividends, and other earnings is necessary.
- (b) People usually pay cash for many items, such as groceries. Review your monthly expense payments and make a best estimate on cash expenditures. If you pay insurance annually, calculate the monthly cost. Attached are IRS expense allowances for the area in which you live. If your expenses exceed these, we will have to review them and perhaps make adjustments.
- (c) When you value property you own, consider prices in the neighborhood for housing, in newspapers and car lots for automobiles, and what you would pay for furniture and clothes at a business selling such goods.
- (d) If you have an item of special value, an appraisal may be necessary.
- (e) When listing creditors, collect current bills and use that information for mailing addresses and balances due.
- (f) Under the law of this state, or federal bankruptcy law, certain property may be exempt and may be retained. Attached is a copy of the state list of exemptions and also a list of property that may be exempt under federal law. Neither list is all-inclusive. If a seller has a lien on exempt property, the lien may be avoidable or you may have to pay for the property in order to keep it. After you have prepared these lists, we can review them and decide what property qualifies as exempt.

EXHIBIT C

IMPORTANT NOTES PLEASE READ EACH CAREFULLY.
By initialing you acknowledge that you read and understood each of the following

Initials	Important Information
	Within 14 days of filing your case you are required to complete and file a certificate showing that you have completed a debtor education class. If you do not, you will not receive a discharge. It is your responsibility to complete the class and we will not remind you.
	We can add creditors to your petition within a reasonable time after filing. However, there is a fee of $100 which includes a $30 court cost that must be paid prior to us amending your petition. You are fully responsible for providing all creditors to us and if you wish for us to amend your petition prior to discharge you must provide us a list of the missing creditors and the $100 along with any other documents we require, no later than 30 days prior to discharge. We will not remind you of the deadline.
	If at any time you need a copy of your notice of filing or discharge letter there will be a charge of $100 that must be paid prior to the paper work being given to you.
	If you fail to attend your first 341 meeting for any reason and it is continued. You will pay our firm an additional $300 to attend the continued 341 meeting.
	Any other potential services, such as defense of a complaint to determine dischargeability of a debt or of a United States Trustee motion to convert this case or dismiss it as an abusive filing, are not included and will be provided only through a separate representation agreement.
	If you have property secured by a loan (i.e. vehicle or real estate) and you wish to continue with the pre-filing payments, it is important for you to call your lender, after filing bankruptcy and ask them to send us a "reaffirmation agreement". The reaffirmation agreement is your agreement to keep paying for the property after your bankruptcy case is over. If you execute a reaffirmation agreement and it is filed with the court you will then be fully obligated to repay the loan. It is your responsibility to ensure that you read the reaffirmation carefully and understand its terms. In addition, you must make sure the bank files it with the bankruptcy court. We will only complete necessary portions of the reaffirmation agreement, it is your responsibility to make sure it is executed and filed by the bank. This is not a recommendation to reaffirm mortgage loans.
	It is very important for you to inform us of any credit card purchases within the last six months for non-essential items and cash advances. I consider food, gas, medical and other such purchases to be essential. Any non-essential purchases in excess of $500 should be specifically discussed with me so that I can best serve your interests.
	You must notify me of any payments made to a friend or family member within 1yr of filing the bankruptcy petition that were made to repay a debt owed to them.
	It is your responsibility to make sure we have a full list of your creditors and their correct bankruptcy mailing address.
	You have told us of all real estate you owned in the last 5 years. Regardless of its current ownership or title status and your petition discloses any judgements you may have against you.
	You must file your case within 90 days of executing this agreement or we reserve the right to close your case. See below for refund policy.
	If you pay the $399 in full and then decide to not proceed, we are entitled to keep no less than $399 for work completed on your bankruptcy petition prior to your decision to not proceed. We reserve the right to make the final determination on how much money to refund to you. If you pay a down payment we will not return your money as it will be credited against the meeting time you spent with our attorney.
